The Chairman advised the meeting of local Parish/Town Council Chairman or representatives had been well attended and members felt a powerful joint letter should be sent to Somerset Council. This had been drafted by a member present and forwarded to local parishes. To date, seven had authorised their agreement. Members were asked whether they would be happy for Williton Parish Council to sign the letter. After a few slight grammatical amendments, it was unanimously resolved to agree.

Resolution: To authorise Williton Parish Council, to sign the joint letter
Proposed by Cllr Howes, seconded by Cllr de Burgh-Thomas, unanimously resolved.

Members then considered an individual response from Williton Parish Council. The Clerk would draft a letter and forward to members the following day. Any comments were requested to be submitted to ensure the letter could be forwarded to Somerset Council in time for their meeting papers to be circulated.

Resolution: For the Clerk to produce a letter from Williton Parish Council, circulate to members and submit to meet the Somerset Council meeting deadline.
Proposed by Cllr de Burgh-Thomas, seconded Cllr Peeks, unanimously resolved

The Chairman advised it had been requested at the LCN meeting that speakers attend the Somerset Council Budget Meeting, being held on 20th February 2024 and registered to speak.
