Unreasonably Persistent or Vexatious Complaints Policy

Williton Parish Council is committed to dealing with all complaints fairly and impartially, and to providing a high-quality service to those who complain. We will not normally limit the contact complainants have with our council. However, we do not expect our staff to tolerate unacceptable behaviour and will take action to protect staff from that behaviour, including that which is abusive, offensive or threatening.

Williton Parish Council defines unreasonable behaviour as that which hinders our consideration of complaints because of the frequency or nature of the complainant's contact with the council, such as, if the complainant:

- refuses to articulate their complaint or specify the grounds of a complaint or the outcomes sought by raising the complaint, despite offers of assistance
- refuses to co-operate with the complaints investigation process.
- refuses to accept that certain issues are not within the scope of the complaints procedure.
- insists on the complaint being dealt with in ways which are incompatible with the complaints procedure or with good practice.
- introduces trivial or irrelevant information which they expect to be taken into account and commented on
- raises large numbers of detailed but unimportant questions, and insists they are fully answered, often immediately and to their own timescales
- makes unjustified complaints about staff who are trying to deal with the issues, and seeks to have them replaced
- changes the basis of the complaint as the investigation proceeds
- repeatedly makes the same complaint (despite previous investigations or responses concluding that the complaint is groundless or has been addressed)
- refuses to accept the findings of the investigation into that complaint where the council's complaint procedure has been fully and properly implemented and completed
- seeks an unrealistic outcome
- makes excessive demands on council time by frequent, lengthy, and complicated contact with staff regarding the complaint in person, in writing, by email, and by telephone while the complaint is being dealt with
- uses threats to intimidate

- uses abusive, offensive or discriminatory language or violence
- knowingly provides falsified information
- publishes unacceptable information on social media or other public forums.

While the complaint is being progressed, complainants should try to limit their communication with the council about their complaint. It is not helpful if repeated correspondence is sent (either by letter, phone, email, or text), as it could delay the outcome being reached.

Whenever possible, the clerk will discuss any concerns with the complainant informally before applying an 'unreasonable' marking.

If the behaviour continues, the clerk will write to the complainant explaining that their behaviour is unreasonable and ask them to change it. For complainants who excessively contact Williton Parish Council causing a significant level of disruption, we may specify methods of communication and limit the number of contacts in a communication plan. This will be reviewed after six months.

In response to any serious incident of aggression or violence, we will immediately inform the police and communicate our actions in writing. This may include barring an individual from Williton Parish Council premises.
